DEDICATION

TO

MISS MARY WILLIAMSON

BECAUSE you have given to each of us during our stay at Hollins some share in that "sense of fitness and beauty" which is so much a part of your own life, because, amid the confusion and haste of our lives, you have shown us so well the "art of enjoyment," "the fine art of conversation," and because, through you, we have learned that it is indeed "a lovely thing . . . to look upon life as an art," we dedicate our book to you this year, as a very small token of appreciation and love.

FORWORD

ONCE we had a yearbook with the Godey's Lady's books of the last century for a theme. Where that book stopped, we take up this year, with the era of the "gay nineties," the days of the poetry album, the Gibson girl, and the "bicycle-built-for-two." For whatever the theme of THE SPINSTER, whether the Hollins of 1850 or 1890 or 1938, we like to think of the same golden thread of tradition and ideal running through all those years, giving them in common the precious heritage that has fallen to every Hollins girl since 1842.

Our President

Miss Bessie Carter Randolph

"In these trees, strong with the years gone by,
In these white columns, ever straight and true,
These quiet hills against a quiet sky,
That sky itself, peace shadowed in its blue;
In this world within the hills where we at length
Love those things most for all they come to mean,
We find in you, Miss Randolph, all their strength,
Their depth and calm, eternal, changeless, and serene."

(33)

THE SPINSTER

Mary Bentley Anderson

1309 South Frederica Street
OWENSBORO, KY.

A. B. HISTORY AND APPRECIATION OF ART

Makes her daily trip to the tea house but never fails to study hard.
Has a warm spot in her heart for the University, which is reciprocated. "Observes the social niceties, don't you know!"

THE SPINSTER

Ruth Winifred Brunyate

221 Grove Road
SOUTH ORANGE, N. J.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Does class odd jobs in her efficient way. Usually joins the afternoon trek to the Tea House. With Allison plays gracious hostess to all Seniors who get lost in Main Building.

THE SPINSTER

Ruth Ann Burnett

807 McDaniel Avenue
GREENVILLE, S. C.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Holds all speed records for talking, usually about the Navy—and we can't help enjoying it every time. Wears her stunning clothes stunningly, has enough enthusiasm and pep for a dozen, and never lets you down.

THE SPINSTER

Virginia Blair Carter

2306 West Market Street
GREENSBORO, N. C.

A. B. ORGAN

Spends three-fourths of her time in the chapel, what with choir and organ majoring—all of which well equips her for that musical career. Another asset—her wonderful disposition, which no one else could top. Takes an hour off every morning for mail and the tea house.

THE SPINSTER

Kathleen Wannamaker Cherry

37 East Amelia Street
ORANGEBURG, S. C.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Chief holder-downer of West Building. Presides over ADA's and Sunbeams. Has a gift for making anyone feel cheerful—or "chairful," as they say in Orangeburg.

THE SPINSTER

Roberta Lee Cover

ELKTON, VA.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

A little girl, but she holds her head high. Haunts the library morning, noon, and night, and still has a disposition envied by many. Ornament and pride of Cotillion.

THE SPINSTER

Georgina Dando

187 Taylor Avenue
BEAVER, PA.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Will probably be buried in her brown skirt. Wish we'd been listening to her funny stories for four years instead of two. Shares Green's fondness for cats.

THE SPINSTER

Dorothy Hilliard Davis

TORONTO, CANADA

A. B. STUDIO ART

Takes care of Keller relief work, so we can get our 9:30 dopes. Noted for being an artist without temperament, for those gorgeous sailboat pictures, and for being half of the Garber-Davis team which keeps first hall West lively.

THE SPINSTER

Elizabeth Hardy Fair

14 Manly Street
GREENVILLE, S. C.

A. B. BIOLOGY

Upholds our morale by her constantly impeccable appearance while the rest of us run around in shirts and socks. A star support of our basket ball championships, with a four-year record as forward. So quiet that she seldom shows all her good sense and pleasant manner.

(42)

THE SPINSTER

Maude Safford Farley

3607 Brook Road
RICHMOND, VA.

A. B. PHYSICS AND MATHEMATICS

Keeps the class in an uproar with her ready manner, frank remarks and unfailing energy and humor. We'll never forget that immortal scene with the telescope on the deck of the "S. S. Hollins Special."

Support and captain of the victorious Blues.

(43)

THE SPINSTER

Marjorie Flach

3433 Mooney Avenue
CINCINNATI, OHIO

A. B. STUDIO ART

A painter of both the studio art and play production variety. Those good-looking cardigans her own handiwork. Her appreciation of your feeble wit is positively inspiring, and she's perfect company because she always obligingly wants to do the thing you want to do, and does it in the best of humor.

(44)

THE SPINSTER

Agnes Adger Gant

912 West Davis Street
BURLINGTON, N. C.

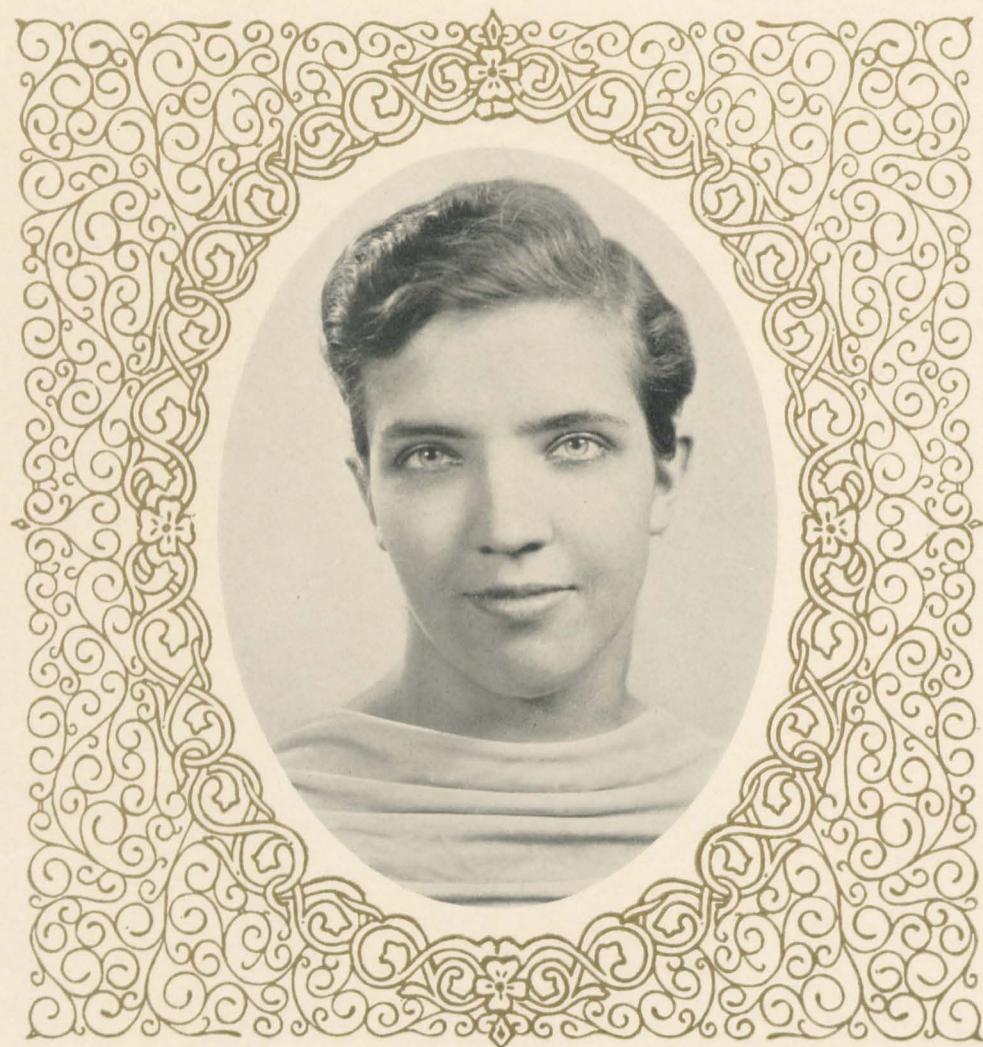

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Completely herself always, and a very good self to be. Forgiven all those fire drills for her casual acceptance of whatever happens, and her easy temper. Nothing half-way about her, ever—an unforgettable person of complete loyalty, good faith and delight.

(45)

THE SPINSTER

Mary Ellen Garber

419 Stratford Road
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

A. B. PHILOSOPHY

Newspaper woman and campus wit. Puts the "life" in Student Life. Famous for that red cap, for the colorful dog blankets she knits and for being forever pursued by Snow White, Dopey, and Company.

(46)

THE SPINSTER

Dorothy Louise Gills

26 Birch Road
WEST HARTFORD, CONN.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Always doing things unexpectedly funny—as the day she accidentally kicked the bucket. Has a weakness for red knitted suits and Sunday dinners with "Granma" at Bedford.

(47)

THE SPINSTER

Winifred Trimble Glover

45 College Street
NEWNAN, GA.

A. B. PHILOSOPHY

One of the inevitable bridge players but, better than most, can talk and play bridge at the same time. Haunts the philosophy room in the library, but still finds time to catch the 2:15 Lexington bus.

THE SPINSTER

Mary West Green

220 North Fifteenth Street
WILMINGTON, N. C.

A. B. FRENCH

"Ten thousand words in two minutes." Green culottes and gray hat, her most prized possessions. Keller's most faithful athlete.
Fond of cats.

THE SPINSTER

Aubrey Craig Hawley

2135 Culp Street
NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO

A. B. HISTORY AND APPRECIATION OF ART

The girl with the happy face and the tennis racket, who is always smiling, unless she has a French written, and always interested in whatever you are doing. No wonder she has so many friends.

THE SPINSTER

Elizabeth Helton Hays

16519 Washburn Avenue
DETROIT, MICH.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Would be captain of the debating team, if we had one. The condition of Keller and senior candles constitute her chief worry, and knitting is her consolation. Never seen without flowers, courtesy of Kimmerling. If we had to say it all in one word, that would be "courage."

THE SPINSTER

Harriet Wisdom Holland

930 Highland Avenue
JACKSON, TENN.

A. B. VOICE

Has proved herself a competent house president by holding down Second Hall East this year. Takes time off from that job to manage archery. Her singing has added much to chapel services for four years—it's even a joy to listen to her practicing in Presser.

THE SPINSTER

Helen Harlan Hudgins

3964 North New Jersey Street
INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Small, funny, and loyal. One who makes the worst puns in school and the best companion. Does all the work at the cabin and consumes three Dixies a day at the Tea House. Her laugh—one of the Seniors' most prized possessions.

THE SPINSTER

Pela Plummer Hundley

217 Fifty-Third Street
NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

In two years Boopie has proved herself a worthy '38—in athletics, in good comradeship and in the wit which earned her membership in the Honorable Society of ADA's last Tinker Day. Even in her most discouraged moments, that sense of humor breaks through and we always have to laugh with her.

THE SPINSTER

Margaret Holmes Jamieson

Horner Hill
OXFORD, N. C.

A. B. FRENCH

A perfect double for Donald Duck. Unique in her endless spontaneity and verve. Has to read "thirty French plays in two hours" but prefers prom-trotting.

THE SPINSTER

Dorothy Jones

56-70 One Hundred and Thirty-Sixth Street
FLUSHING, N. Y.

A. B. HISTORY

A little "Op-o-me-thumb" who takes afternoon naps in a great big way, defends her convictions in Legislative with a clear, deliberate voice, and possesses the widest eyes and the longest lashes around. Lives in the same band box with Lee.

(56)

THE SPINSTER

Mary Eugenia Lee

822 Fleming Avenue
AUGUSTA, GA.

A. B. PSYCHOLOGY

We predict a future as professor for her, she's so wonderfully absent-minded. Or, if she chose, she could be official choreographer for the Class of '38. Has an indefinable elfin quality which makes us all love her.

(57)

THE SPINSTER

Marjorie Burr Livingston

237 Summit Avenue
SUMMIT, N. J.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

The "candid camera," records us all for posterity in the most embarrassing fashion. Handles the endowment fund expertly. Portrays the tall, handsome prince in all plays calling for such.

THE SPINSTER

Nancy Amelia Means

276 Pine Street
SPARTANBURG, S. C.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Noted for stunning clothes, frankness, beauty sleep. Spends her time leaving notebooks all over school, and spreading Culbertson ideas all over Keller. There's never a dull moment around Means.

THE SPINSTER

Louie Brown Michaels

606 Simpson Street
GREENSBORO, N. C.

A. B. ENGLISH

Typing furiously to get Cargoes to press. Listening faithfully to "Gang Busters." Keeping trim in Orchesis. Louie can always sing away "your troubles and sorrows and care."

THE SPINSTER

Mary Jeannette Ogsbury

Hope Valley Road
DURHAM, N. C.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Stumbles blithely around, but queerly combines poise and beauty with all her turning over of Christmas trees and tripping on tent ropes. Her natural, God-given graces include her brilliant acting, her impartiality, basket ball, singing, and the loveliness which made her our May Queen.

THE SPINSTER

Martha Louise Pearce

3827 Guilford Avenue
INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

A. B. BIOLOGY

Enthusiasm and a sense of the ridiculous characterize Marty, as well as the dignity and balance which keeps the class steady. The Science Hall is practically her second home, but she is never too busy for daily hysterics with Peery, or anybody else.

(62)

THE SPINSTER

Nancy Letitia Peery

TAZEWELL, VA.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Perfect as President of the Student Body and equally skillful as the shadow boxer. Dependable, balanced, level-headed—Peery is all these, but unassuming sympathy, appreciation and humor as well make her someone none of us will ever forget.

(63)

THE SPINSTER

Nancy Lyons Penn

1306 Watauga Street
KINGSPORT, TENN.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

"She gives all" is more than just a Tinker Day quip—it is true of all Penn does. She has beauty of an other-worldly kind which comes out best when she is Peter Pan in the Forest of Arden, or the "delicate Ariel," whom she resembles most.

THE SPINSTER

Elise Conant Quinby

24 Hollywood Avenue
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

A. B. BIOLOGY

One of the girls we admire because her week-ends always stretch into weeks. Keeps the collective feet of the class on solid ground by her unerring common sense. Always looks as if she lived in a band box.

THE SPINSTER

Ruth Chambers Rhoads

1105 Franklin Street
WILMINGTON, DEL.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Would do anything in the world for you, and do it well. A perfect "Quaker maid"—demure, sweet and cheerful to everyone—also a constant knitter and a good Cargoes contributor. Has lovely eyes, and a wave in her hair which is the continual envy of others.

THE SPINSTER

Elizabeth Rebecca Rice

OAKTON, VA.

A. B. PIANO

Leads school singing on all occasions, as well as playing our way from Student Government meetings and convocations. Leads also at any other time with her lovely face and hair, and her music.

Never far from Presser and the piano.

THE SPINSTER

Sara Meta Rice

724 West Whitner Street
ANDERSON, S. C.

A. B. LATIN

Has the clearest future of any senior and a fine one he is. Has headed the Y. W. for two years, starred with the Red team, been Miss Chevraux's right hand, and made the very loveliest Madonna we have ever seen.

THE SPINSTER

Lucy Adelaide Singleton

1506 Morris Avenue
NORFOLK, VA.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Costumer by appointment to the entire school, specializing in May days. Disappears into the library on week-ends. We like to see her smile and watch her dance. She's efficient, too, and can handle anything from Student Council to a trip to Charlottesville.

THE SPINSTER

Adelaide Dunsmore Smith

3806 Military Road, N. W.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Always dashing around getting things done, turning out SPINSTERS, Christmas pageants and May Day plays without noticeable effort. Her intensity relieved by humor and her sensibility tempered by sense, watch out, world, here comes Addle!

THE SPINSTER

Allison Virginia Smith

Pleasant Ridge Road

HARRISON, N. Y.

A. B. BIOLOGY

A quiet person who does more than she ever gets credit for. A perfect "big sister" to 1940. As soon as you see her, you like her and want to know her better because of her good taste and her sense of dignity and fitness.

THE SPINSTER

Frances Virtie Smith

ORANGE, VA.

A. B. ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

You can't help liking even her worrying and despair because she's funny at the same time, and she always comes through, anyhow. That shining hair is indeed her "crowning glory" and "Pooh," her nickname for everyone, is familiar everywhere.

THE SPINSTER

Frances Meade Sydnor

PULASKI, VA.

A. B. PIANO

A sense of humor few people know, and a genuine sweetness no one can help knowing. Her "Miss Randolph" will always be one of our happiest memories, and her music, too, because we like to hear her play.

THE SPINSTER

Katharine Douglas Whitehead

CHATHAM, VA.

A. B. ENGLISH LITERATURE

A "Jack-of-all-trades" and unbeatable at every one. Five feet of speed on the athletic field, but her personality is immeasurable. Versatile, but always herself at whatever she does.

THE SPINSTER

Mildred Kennedy Williams

501 Mitchell Avenue
SALISBURY, N. C.

A. B. LATIN

Our most ardent Tarheel. Perfectly frank about her own shortcomings, always tolerant of yours. Guided us through our junior year. A debater who can hold any floor any day.

THE SPINSTER

Ruth Landis Winston

4019 Hermitage Road
RICHMOND, VA.

A. B. LATIN

Patron saint of the Tea House, by the end of four years she owns the place. Captain of the teams that Katie isn't captain of. Charter member of all varsities. Organizer of cabin parties.

(76)

THE SPINSTER

Catherine Johnston Wright

1803 Powhatan Avenue
PETERSBURG, VA.

A. B. PIANO

Combines the school's most infectious laugh with a seriousness which comes out in the music she loves and plays so beautifully. May get "down" but never lets you know it. Business manager of Presser, and accountable for any good there may be in the seniors' singing.

(77)

THE SPINSTER

Frances Young

866 Oakdale Road
ATLANTA, GA.

A. B. VOICE

A perfect senior table hostess. Has standing bridge game every night after supper. There's less of her now than when we first knew her, but she's still the same old F. Q.—same voice, same laugh, same good nature.

Riding

In the past few years riding has grown to be one of the major sports at Hollins. The Riding Club has increased markedly in both size and activity. This year the activities have included several breakfast rides, a ride to the cabin for supper with a moonlight ride home and the Gymkhana. The horse show last spring was won by Sara Lee Sullivan.

May Day, 1937

SHEPHERDS' HOLIDAY

Shepherds' Holiday, by Adelaide Smith, was presented by Freya as the May Day pageant in 1937. In accordance with time-honored custom, the lords and ladies of the court go forth to fetch in the May. The villagers and peasants await their return to celebrate their holiday. During the time that passes, the shepherd Robin makes a bargain with the shepherdess Audrey that, if he succeeds in having the haughty Strephon and the disdainful Rosalind fall in love with each other before the court returns, Audrey will at last consent to marry him. With the help of Colin and Phyllis and, after various complications, Robin fulfills his bargain as the Queen and her Court appear.

During the pageant a tumbling act was presented, as well as two charming dances, one by the peasants and one by the nymphs, who bore in a chain of flowers. The processions, at beginning and end, were especially lovely and colorful.
